Sally Rey Parkinson

International Development & Policy Implementation Leader

Former Acting Office Director & Division Chief for Asia, Latin America, the Middle East, and Eastern Europe in USAID's Bureau for Resilience, Environment, and Food Security

sallycaryrey@gmail.com

Linkedin

Contact

20 Years of experience

Professional Bio:

Sally is a results-driven leader with approximately 20 years of experience in international development, policy implementation, project management, research, evaluation, government affairs, and foreign policy—including 3½ years of service on Capitol Hill. She brings a strong blend of strategic insight, public sector experience, and cross-sector collaboration to drive impactful solutions in complex global environments.

Skills & Expertise:

Program/Project Management; Policy Development; Monitoring, Evaluation, and Learning (MEL); Stakeholder Engagement; Strategic Planning; Agriculture & Food Security; Global Health; Private Sector Engagement; Other: Conference Planning

Sectors of Work:

International Development; Public Health; Diplomacy & Foreign Affairs; National Security / Defense; Economic Growth; Trade & Investment

Languages Spoken:

English, Spanish

JOIN US

contact@wice.org.

WICE